Coruna, March 9. N. S.

THE Spaniſh Alliance Pacquet-Boat came in here the 7th Inſtant, in 8 days from Falmouth. Letters from Madrid of the 26th ſay, the Marquis de Harcourt was arrived there with the Character of Ambaſſador Extraordinary from France.

Warſaw, March 4. The Meeting at Lowitz being broken up, the Deputies from the Lower-Poland, and from three Palatinates in the Upper-Poland, who were much diſſatisfied with the Proceedings and unreaſonable Demands of the reſt of the Gentlemen of the Rokotz, repaired to Bloni, 5 miles from hence, with the Kings Commiſſioners, and the Envoy of Brandenbourg, where they agreed to make their Submiſſions to the King, and an Inſtrument being drawn up to that effect, and ſigned by them, they waited this day on his Majeſty, and preſented the ſame: But the Primate continues in the oppoſite Intereſt, and does all he can to countenance and ſupport the Party who ſtill refuſe to own his Majeſty, who is ſo diſſatisfied with his Carriage, that his Majeſty ſeems reſolved to Treat no farther with him; and intends in few days to begin his Journey to Pruſſia. We hear from Ruſlemberg, that the Tartars having brought a Convoy of Proviſions into Caminiec, attempted to make an Incurſion into the Province of Wolhinia, but being hindred by the great Snows which are fallen there, from putting their deſign in execution, they returned home without doing any great Miſchief.

Dantzicke, March 8. The King of Poland was expected here in the beginning of this month, but the ill Succeſs of the Meeting at Lowitz has rendred the time of his coming uncertain. We hear, that divers Gentlemen having propoſed to draw up ſeveral Articles, which they thought neceſſary for Eſtabliſhing the Peace of the Kingdom, and for Preſerving their Rights and Liberties, others who are in the King's Intereſt did very much oppoſe the ſame, not thinking them proper to be preſented to his Majeſty, whereupon the Aſſembly broke up the 26th paſt in a diſorderly manner, and not without great Animoſities between thoſe of different Opinions. Theſe Advices add, that the Pope and Colledge of Cardinals had writ to the Primate, and to ſeveral others of the Chief Nobility and Clergy, to perſuade them to ſubmit to the King, and to unite their Forces for the Defence of their Country, and for carrying on the War vigorouſly againſt the Turks; and 'tis hoped theſe Offices of the Court of Rome may at length produce the deſired Effect. We have an account from Samogitia, that a Meeting of the Gentlemen was lately held there, in which the Sieurs Ziemsky and Odachowsky, two of the Principal Officers of that Province, being accuſed of having done ſeveral things contrary to the Priviledges of their Country, there aroſe ſuch Hears and Diſputes among them, that divers Sabres were drawn, and the Sieur Ziemsky was very much wounded, and the other to avoid their Fury made his eſcape; Two other Gentlemen having loſt their Lives in endeavouring to bring them off.

Vienna, March 5. The Chapter of Oſnabrug will now very ſoon proceed to the Election of a new Biſhop: The Emperor ſupports the Prince of Lorraine's Intereſt, and beſides the Inſtructions which Count d'Eck, who is gone to aſſiſt at that Election on the part of his Imperial Majeſty, has in this Affair; Monſieur Von Goltz has been ſent into Weſtphalia to deſire the Biſhop of Munſter, that he would reſign his Intereſt to that Prince. The Count of Stirum is not yet gone for Poland, the bad Weather having obliged him to put off his Journey for ſome time. We hear from the Frontiers, that the Turks continue in their deſign to refortifie Vypalanka, and to make a Line along the Save near Belgrade, for which the Ground was already marked out, in order to begin the ſame as ſoon as the Weather will permit. They write from Hermanſtadt, that the Deputies of ſeveral Cities in Tranſilvania were aſſembled there, to agree with Count Rabutin about the Supplies that are demanded of them for the Subſiſtence of the Forces quartered in that Country.

Frankfort, March 12. We are now expecting to hear in few days that the French have evacuated Philipsbourg; and in the mean while 'tis agreed, that the German Gariſon of that place ſhall conſiſt in 1000 Men of the Emperor's Forces, the like number to be furniſhed by the Circle of Franconia, as many by that of Suabia, and 500 by the Circle of the Upper-Rhine.

Hamburgh, March 7. Our laſt Letters from Stockholm ſay, the Count de Bilke, Governor of Pomerania for the King of Sueden, was fallen under his
